3-day Barcelona itinerary

Ready-made plan with opening hours and official ticket links · includes the free Tibidabo church visit

Check before you plan. Museums and attractions that need advance tickets may be sold out — check availability via the ticket links first. Hours are typical and change by season; many museums close on Mondays.

Day 1

Park Güell, Tibidabo church & Sagrada Família

PARK GÜELL → TIBIDABO → EIXAMPLE

Day 1 climbs to the hills for Park Güell and the free hilltop church, then drops down to the basilica.

Want the amusement park instead? Tibidabo Amusement Park takes about half a day — it would replace the afternoon of this day, so drop the later stops. Open days are limited: check the official calendar first.
Book ahead: Park Güell; Sagrada Família. Check availability before you plan — popular slots can sell out days or weeks ahead.

09:00 — Park Güell TICKETED BOOK AHEAD

Gaudí's hillside garden city — the mosaic dragon, the colonnaded hall and the serpentine bench, with city views.

🕘 Typically 09:30–19:30 (shorter in winter). Entry to the monumental zone is by timed ticket only.

🚇 Metro L3 Vallcarca or Lesseps, then a 15–20 minute uphill walk (or a local bus).

⚠ Check availability before you fix your plans — tickets or time slots may be sold out.
