Tossa de Mar — day trip itinerary

From Barcelona · with transport, hours and booking links

Check before you plan. Museums and attractions that need advance tickets may be sold out — check availability via the ticket links first. Hours are typical and change by season; many museums close on Mondays.

Walls, beaches and coves — a classic summer day on the Costa Brava.

Before you go: check opening days and train/bus timetables, and book anything marked Book ahead — tickets, tours and seats may not be available on the day.

HOW TO GET THERE

Bus: Direct Moventis coach from Barcelona Estació del Nord, about 1h20.

No change needed — this is the recommended route (Tossa de Mar has no train station).

Train: Rodalies R1 to Blanes, then a local Pujol bus on to Tossa de Mar.

Change needed — adds about 30 minutes; the direct bus above is simpler.

10:30 — Old town walls (Vila Vella) FREE ENTRY

Walk the fortified medieval old town, whose walls look straight down onto the bay.

🕘 Open-air — always accessible.

12:00 — Platja Gran FREE ENTRY

The main town beach, right below the walls.

🕘 Beach — daylight.

13:30 — Lunch by the sea

Seafood restaurants along the promenade.

15:00 — Platja de la Mar Menuda FREE ENTRY

Calmer water, the best spot for snorkelling and diving.

🕘 Beach — daylight.

16:30 — Cala Pola or es Codolar FREE ENTRY

A quieter pine-backed cove, or the tiny cove beneath the castle walls.

🕘 Beach — daylight.

18:30 Return to Barcelona

Check the last train or bus time before you go, and leave a comfortable margin.
