La Molina — day trip itinerary

From Barcelona · with transport, hours and booking links

Check before you plan. Museums and attractions that need advance tickets may be sold out — check availability via the ticket links first. Hours are typical and change by season; many museums close on Mondays.

A ski day: get a lift pass and book gear in advance. The route needs about 2h30–3h each way.

Before you go: check opening days and train/bus timetables, and book anything marked Book ahead — tickets, tours and seats may not be available on the day.

HOW TO GET THERE

Train: Rodalies R3 runs direct to the La Molina station (about 2h30–3h from Barcelona Sants or Plaça Catalunya) — a free shuttle bus then runs from the station up to the slopes.

No change needed — the R3 line has its own La Molina stop; only the short free shuttle bus links the station to the ski area.

Bus: Sagalés runs a seasonal day-trip coach (SkiBus) from Estació del Nord, including transport, insurance and a lift pass.
